Miss Edna Lewis, a handsome little daughter of Mr. Sam Lewis, who is soon to become a citizen of Columbia, accompanied her father to this place last week.
Mr. J. K. A. Strange and Mrs. Rollin Hurt have been quite sick with la-grippe for several days. Mr. Rollin Hurt, who has been confined with the same affliction, has about recovered.
Messrs. Henry Kemp, W. F. Hancock and J. C. Strange went over to Campbellsville to meet Mr. W. T. Price, who has returned from Texas. Titus has been greatly missed, and it is the desire of all the young people that he remain in Columbia.
Mr. Ira Jones, a former citizen of Columbia, has returned to his old home and has accepted a position with Mr. J. W. Coffey, who is in the black-smithing business. Mr. Jones is just out of the regular army, having served three years, the most of his service being in Cuba.

Mr. Liburn Phelps, a promising young lawyer of Jamestown, graduated from the Law Department of the University of Louisville last week. He stood a splendid examination, his average being 98 1/2. Mr. Phelps reached Columbia Monday night, en route for his home.

LOCAL JOTTINGS.

Mr. Duke Grider was married to a widow Williams a few days ago.

We can furnish you fertilizer at $1.10 per 100 pounds and up. W. F. Jeffries & Son.

There will be an auction at Tarter's store Saturday, May 5. Let everybody attend.

The basket meeting at Glenville last Sunday was largely attended. Quite a number from town were out.

It pays to buy the best fertilizer for your crops. See W. F. Jeffries & Son before buying.

We have received another interesting letter from Eld. Z. T. Williams which will be published next week.

Every farmer should raise broom corn for his own use. W. I. Peese, of Cane Valley, will tie brooms for 7 1/2 cents each.

Mr. Gordon Montgomery informs us that everything is in readiness for his residence, and that the carpenters will begin work next Monday.

Ernest Young, son of Mr. George Young, who was sent to the asylum a few weeks ago from this county, died last Friday.

When you visit Louisville, stop at the New Phoenix Hotel. First-class fare and well located, corner of 7th and Market Streets.

Carpenters are getting along nicely with Robt. Hudson's cottage, and in a very short time it will be ready for occupancy.

Jim Wilks, with his mate, were shipped from Lexington to New York and sold for $1,200. Jim Wilks was raised by Mr. C. S. Harris, editor of the News.

I will be permanently located in Columbia by the 25th of May, and this city will be my main headquarters for receiving produce. Bring it in.

Next Monday will be county court. The county officers are about up with their work, and will have everything in readiness for circuit court which convenes the third Monday in May.

John Ellis, a young man employed by Maupin and Ellis Bros., saw-mill men, met with a severe accident last week while felling off lumber at the mill near Pellyton. The saw carriage caught him and one of his legs were broken. He is getting along very well.

Ed Pollard was on the edging shaft at Morrison & Hood's saw mill, last Monday and was severely bruised. The extent of his injuries are unknown to us at this time, but it was almost a miracle that he escaped alive.

If you want a clean shave, an up-to-date hair cut, you can get it at the Conover Barber Shop. Don't forget this when you come to town.

R. L. ROBERTS. 4c.

Russell Springs will appear city like this season. The hotel and business houses will use gas. In fact it is already being used in several of the stores, and the fixtures for the hotel will be put in at once.

The Jeff Mantel Company, 224 West Jefferson St., Louisville, sell the best and cheapest mantels in the city. They represent three of the best factories, and manufacturer much of their stock. 5-2-3m.

Johnston's steam laundry is advertised in to-day's paper. It is located in our neighboring town, Lebanon, and is entitled to the work of this and adjoining counties. Reed & Miller are the agents at Columbia.

The Sunday School Mission meeting at the Baptist church, this city, closed Sunday night. There were many excellent talks, several good sermons, and an interesting paper was read by Miss Laura Smythe. There was good attendance during the session.

Last Saturday afternoon while Rufus Holt, who lives in Russell county, was out chopping wood a splinter struck in his eye. The doctors have failed to locate the splinter, and it is feared Mr. Holt will lose the sight of his wounded eye.

Pianos are often ruined by so called tuners. Mr. Geo. H. Thomas, an experienced man, who has been with D. H. Baldwin & Co., for years, will be in Columbia during the month of May. If you want your instrument tuned, leave order at the News office now.

Mr. Sam Lewis purchased of Mr. N. M. Tutt, last week, the residence on Burksville street, adjoining the home of Gov. Hindman, and will be here with his family by the 25th of May. It is a very desirable home. Consideration, $1,000.

Last week we mentioned that Mr. Sam Lewis and family would likely become residents of Columbia. We now take pleasure in stating that Mr. Lewis has about completed his arrangements and will remove his family about the 20th of May from Glasgow to Columbia.

Mr. Geo. E. Pollis, who is a good compositor, sober and industrious, has accepted a position on the Wayne County Record, a paper published at Monticello, and has entered upon the discharge of his duties. We assure the Record man that George will do his work well and promptly.

Mr. R. H. Price caught a cat fish last Friday night which measured 24 feet in length and weighed 12 pounds. This is the largest fish that has been caught near town this season. It is believed by fishermen that Russell's creek is well supplied with bass, and much good sport is anticipated.

Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp, of Lexington, a well-known State temperance lecturer, spoke to a fair audience in this city last Thursday night. She is a woman of strong force and speaks fluently. Being interested in a good cause we trust that she will accomplish a great work.

A representative of this paper was absent from home last week, and at Campbellsville, Lebanon and Louisville he was asked concerning the Russell Springs Fair. Representatives from all these places will be in attendance, and they are anxious to know the date.

Corda Cape, a young man 20 years of age, met a fearful and sudden death near Joppa last Saturday forenoon. He was standing in the yard of his home, gun in hand. Concluding to fire it, he pulled the trigger. The explosion burst the barrel, several pieces entering the young man's body, killing him instantly.

Mr. John L. Brockman, who lives near Jamestown, and Miss Archie Curry, daughter of Mr. I. C. Curry, this county, eloped to Tennessee a few days since and were made one. The couple have returned and the parents of the young lady, who objected to the union, have become reconciled, and now all concerned pre happy and serene.

A child, four years old of Mr. S. Blair, made a narrow escape from an eagle a few days since. A sister about ten years old was playing with the infant in her parent's yard. Hearing a noise, she turned to see a great bird of prey about to light upon her little sister. She screamed, threw up her hat, frightening the eagle and it flew away.

Miss Pauline Cabell entertained a charade party last Friday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Williams, of Campbellsville. Quite a number of young people were present, spending several hours very delightfully. The charades were good, the music excellent, and the acting minister up with his ceremony. Porter Strange, at the very time he should have been very solemn, smiled a smile, startling all present.

Republican Convention.

The Republican voters and all other voters, without regard to past political affiliations, who believe in civil liberty, are requested to meet in mass convention at 1 o'clock p. m., Monday, May 14, 1900, in the court-house, in Columbia, Ky., for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the State convention, which meets in Louisville May 17, 1900; for the purpose of electing four delegates and four alternates to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia, Pa., on June 19, 1900. Also for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the Congressional District Convention which meets at London, Ky., May 16, 1900, for the purpose of electing two district delegates and two alternates to said National convention. Adair county will be entitled to 16 votes in both the district and State convention.
J. O. RUSSELL, C. R. E. C. A. C. May 1, 1900.

For The Ladies.

Mrs. T. I. Smith, the artistic milliner, Cane Valley, has the largest line of spring hats, bonnets, ribbons, etc., ever opened this side of Green river. Not a hat carried over from last season—every thing new and complete. If you want to see hats dazzling with beautiful flowers, call at her store. Her stock was bought 100 per cent cheaper than last year, hence she can sell goods for less money than any other milliner in the county. Satisfaction guaranteed. Produce taken in exchange for goods. Call.
Mrs. T. I. SMITH, Cane Valley, Ky.

The attention of the merchants in this section, Russell, Clinton and other neighboring counties is called to the card of J. M. Robinson, Norton & Co., wholesale dry goods, Louisville. This old and reliable firm is represented by Frank M. Ballinger, formerly county clerk of Clinton county. He was reared in Russell county, and is known to all the business men throughout this section as an excellent gentleman, perfectly reliable. Wait for his coming.

Last week Mr. R. K. Young sold his interest in the livery business to his partner, Mr. W. F. Hancock, who will continue the business at same place. Mr. Young had only been in our town a few months, but his short stay made him many friends. We understand that business was fairly remunerative, but those broad, fertile bottoms on Marrowbone were too tempting to forsake in good weather. Mr. Young returned to Cumberland county to engage in farming and trading. Good luck to you, Bob.

Capt. J. S. Chapman, who had been a citizen of Adair county for more than thirty years, left with his family for Hiseville, Barron county, last week. He is an enterprising gentleman and will be greatly missed by Adair county people. We met the Captain en route for his new home at Lebanon. He said he could not tell whether the change would be for the best, "but one thing certain," said he, "I'll be out of the Eleventh District." The Captain is a staunch Democrat, and thinks it will be conducive to good health to live in a Democratic Congressional district.

If you are an up-to-date dresser and want up-to-date clothes, buy a faultless suit or a pair of "Buck Eye Pants." They are only up-to-date clothes. Prices, $5, $8, $11 and $12.50 per suit; pants, $1.25 to $5.00 at W. L. WALKER'S.

Republican Precinct Conventions.

The Republicans of Adair county are requested to meet at their respective voting places, in mass convention, at 2 o'clock p. m., Saturday, May 12, 1900, for the purpose of electing a precinct Chairman for their respective precincts. Said mass conventions shall be presided over by the present precinct Chairmen, or in their absence by some one selected by the Republican voters present; said Chairman shall appoint one counter for each candidate for precinct chairman. Voters will then be formed in lines and counted for the candidate of their choice, the one receiving the greatest number of votes shall be declared elected—and shall be given a certificate of election, signed by the presiding officer and counters; and the precinct Chairmen so elected are requested to meet in the court-house in Columbia, Ky., on Monday, May 14, for the purpose of organizing the County Executive Committee by electing a Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer, who may or may not be members of the committee.
J. O. RUSSELL, C. R. E. C. A. C. May 1, 1900.

I. N. Williams Dead.

The citizens of this community were shocked last Monday forenoon upon learning that Mr. I. N. Williams, who was born and reared near Montpelier, had succumbed to the inevitable, paying the debt due from all the living. The deceased was sixty-seven years old, long a consistent member of the Christian church, a useful and honorable citizen. He was a brother of Eld. Z. T. Williams, now traveling in Palestine, who little thought upon leaving home that upon his return he would find his beloved brother dead. The deceased was afflicted with typhoid fever, and will be greatly missed from the daily walks of life.

CANE VALLEY.

Miss Bessie Borders, Campbellsville, is visiting the family of J. E. Rice.

Mr. Shelby Vanhoy and wife, Campbellsville, were visiting his father, S. S. Vanhoy, Sunday.

Misses Olive and Ona Walling, Campbellsville, were visiting Eugene Rice, last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Rose Stark, of Indiana is visiting her mother, Mrs. Nancy Duval.

S. A. Murrell has a hammer in his possession that has been in the Murrell family 150 years. It was presented to him by his great grand father.

Miss Minnie White, of Neatsburg, was visiting Miss Ethel Dohoney last Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. W. S. Dudgeon preached Uncle Nick Davis funeral Sunday at Carmel.

Jo Rice's wife presented him with twins last Friday. 8 pound girl, and 6 pound boy.

Dr. C. D. Moore, of Campbellsville, has removed into our little village to make it his future home.

Cane Valley property has taken another jump this spring. Dr. Moore has offered some very extravagant prices for property, and so far has failed to purchase. It will soon be impossible to purchase a building lot at any price. We have sold land as high as $500 per acre.

Mr. Editor the Brown Democrats have all been converted, and we are so happy. The sun shines brighter, the birds sing sweeter, the honey pond is full and the fritter tree is in full bloom.
